

National Intrepid Center of Excellence

National Intrepid Center of Excellence was a new, out-of-the-ground building project. It specializes in the treatment and rehabilitation of our wounded warriors with TBI (Traumatic Brain Injury). This secure government facility includes an intake/clinic area, physical therapy, sleep lab, central park, and a family room. J.E. Richards Electric, Inc. provided all aspects of the electrical construction and infrastructure of this project.

Market:

Healthcare & Institutional

Date:

2013

Location:

Fort Belvoir, VA